

Summary:

This half day class is designed for Executives and exposes them to the framework, tools and techniques of Critical Thinking, either prior to, or in parallel with Critical Thinking training for employees of the organization.

The focus is to introduce a framework for Critical Thinking and some of the most important tools they can leverage. Also covered is how to create and sustain a culture for Critical Thinking.

Learning Objectives:

- Understand the benefits of Critical Thinking
- Learn a Framework for Critical Thinking
- Learn a few of the most important tools of Critical Thinking
- Have a good understanding of what others are learning and/or should learn
- Understand What a Critical Thinking organization means

Topics Covered:

- What is Critical Thinking; What are the benefits
- Automatic vs Manual Thinking
- The Critical Thinking Framework; Clarity, Conclusions, Decisions
- Clarity – Why, So What and Need
- Conclusions – Facts, Observations, Experiences, Beliefs, Assumptions
- Decisions – Need and Criteria
- Thinking Coach and Leading others to Think
- Creating and Sustaining a Culture for Critical Thinking Environment

Prerequisite: At least 10 years experience in the workplace and senior leadership responsibilities

Duration: 1/2 day

Who should take this course?

VP's, SVP's, EVP's, CXO's and CEO's